

REPUBLICANS ARE ELATED OVER WAY THEY SWEEP FIELD

Only One Representative and a Sheriff Are Consolation Prizes of Bourbons

PAUHI-STREET PUSH BLAMES THE GOVERNOR

Mayor Fern Takes His Defeat Sadly and So Do His Supervisors

(From Thursday Advertiser.)

Republicans were congratulating themselves and "those who didn't vote the opposite ticket" yesterday at the numerous dry and moist places where politicians foregather.

Final returns showed that the victory of the Republicans was even more complete than the partial returns indicated, leaving the Democrats with only one representative and a sheriff for consolation prizes.

Leaders who were assembled along Pauhi street during the day, declared they were going to insist on a recount of the votes cast at the Kalihii pumping station, where, considering their estimate, they got the worst dumping of all. They had felt sure of a five-to-one vote there, whereas the count showed that they barely broke even.

Governor Pinkham Blamed

Along this same Democratic row—Pauhi street—Governor Pinkham was blamed for the almost complete cleansing up of the Democrats; they said that he had sworn down among the party.

Mr. C. Pacheco, defeated candidate for supervisor and chairman of the Democratic territorial central committee, while blaming Pinkham in part, did not blame him altogether.

"Many things contributed to our defeat," he said.

Mayor Fern, "the indefatigable," who lost to John Lane by more than six hundred, did not spend much time in his office yesterday; nor did Will Miles, his private secretary.

Fern seems to be taking his defeat rather hard. It is with an effort that he assumes his air of carefree indifference.

Cripe and Brick for Mayor

Some one pinned a make-shift erpe on his office door yesterday.

Twenty-four hours before someone heaved a brick through his window.

The situation having changed, his honor may have the next brick through someone else's window.

Republican candidates had practically the same thing to say yesterday that they did on election night. Democrats had very little if anything to say. Most of them kept out of sight.

Senator Eric Knudsen's defeat for reelection on Kauai was discussed at length, and many reasons were given to account for his defeat. While it can not be said that it came as an unlooked-for surprise, E. W. Treckon in his prediction declared Knudsen and F. O. Lewis were weak—it was still enough of a surprise to set politicians talking.

Home Ruler Wins Out

McLennan claims to have had a part in Knudsen's undoing. He said on his speech-making tour of the island he told the voters they should have one Hawaiian to represent them in the senate.

Republicans say that Knudsen refused to make any kind of a personal campaign, and for that reason, M. A. Kikakee, the veteran Hawaiian Home Ruler, beat him.

Knudsen's majority will be between 4000 and 5000. The official returns are not in yet; they are coming in slowly, but the last of them will probably be here by the end of the week.

Pioneer Merchant of Nevada Arrives in Honolulu With View To Investment

Seeing the possibility of developing Hawaii's tobacco industry until it is one to rank in importance and commercial value with the sugar industry here, Fred Strassburg, a pioneer tobacco merchant of Nevada has arrived in this city for a sojourn of six weeks.

In this time he proposes to make a thorough investigation into tobacco culture here, and the possibility of curing the tobacco to make it fill the places now held by Havana and some of the better grade Mexican and Porto Rican tobaccos.

"The soil of these old tobacco countries is becoming exhausted," said Strassburg yesterday, "and it is time to look around for some new tobacco fields. From what I know of Hawaii tobacco, it has wonderful possibilities and eventually may supplant the Havana plant."

"While I am here I shall make an investigation into the tobacco business here."

REPUBLICANS GAIN ALL OVER COUNTRY

NEW YORK, November 5.—(Associated Press by Federal Wire)—The latest indications from the election returns are that the Democratic majority in the house of representatives will be cut down to twenty-three, a loss of eighty seats. For the first time in the history of New York a Socialist was elected on Tuesday. This is Meyer London, who defeated Henry M. Goldfogel, Democrat, in the twelfth congressional district.
